

The Network of Interdisciplinary Translation Studies is delighted to share this first call for the 2026 NITS Meeting!

- Date: 22 May 2026
- Location: ULB, Brussels, Belgium
- Website: <https://nitsnetwork.github.io/nits2026/>

The fifth edition of the NITS annual meeting will be hosted by the Centre de recherche en Traduction, interprétation, didactique et traitement automatique des langues (TRADITAL) of the Translation and Interpretation Department at the Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB).

About NITS

NITS is the Network of Interdisciplinary Translation Studies in the Netherlands and Belgium. The aim of the network is for researchers in Translation Studies and other related disciplines, such as Interpreting Studies, Translation Didactics or Translation Technology, to come together once a year for a one-day conference to present research ideas, ongoing projects or teaching innovations that happen at the intersection of Translation Studies and other disciplines in this geographical area, and from this platform be able to collaborate further on projects, research and teaching.

Call for Abstracts

We invite submissions on all aspects related to Translation and Interpreting Studies in the broadest sense, including but not limited to:

- Interdisciplinary approaches to Translation Studies
- New insights into Interpreting Studies
- Recent developments in Translation Technology
- Pedagogical innovations in translation and interpreting education
- Collaborative projects between Translation Studies and other disciplines
- Introduction of theoretical frameworks for the advancement of Translation Studies
- Emerging objects and fields of study or methodologies in Translation Studies

Submissions can take the form of:

- 15-minute paper presentations on educational or research projects (current and/or future)
- posters related to educational or research projects (current and/or future)

We welcome contributions from established and early-career researchers, including MA students.

Submission Guidelines

- Abstracts: up to 300 words outlining the contribution
